

Santas Woes!

It was early Christmas Eve and Santa felt down
Jingle and Jangle had hit the town
Busty Evergreen had a real sore head
Alabaster Snowball was still in bed
Sugar plum Mary was still to be found
It took ages to bring Sherry Upatree around

Rudolf and prancer had gone out to play
When naughty Jingle put them on ebay
Santa just managed to stop the truck
And rescued his reindeers – what a bit of luck

Vixen and Comet ran off to the woods
Trailing behind they took some of the goods
Fortunately for them Santa managed to save
But Dasher and Dancer had gone to a rave
These two managed to return home on their own
Santa tried to wake them – they did nothing but groan

The girls and boys all need you to wake
Come on Elves you've still presents to make
Santa was in a right two and eight
Simply - the children just wont want to wait

Out of the house comes jolly Mrs Claus
With a basket full of booties she had made for their paws
A box full of bells that jingle so well
The reindeer were gathering at the sound of the bell

And so it was Mrs Clause saved the day
Hooray Hooray is all Santa could say
So they all sped off with a sleigh full of toys
Santa was happy – he had not let down the girls and boys!

Linda Rupniak – December 2012

