

EMMA
15.10.05 TO 5.10.2012

Emma was the most beautiful Shar Pei
Such a wonderful showgirl in her day
She was bought from Joy and Dick
This beautiful puppy was their pick

So easy to train I have to say
A perfect angel in every way
She took to showing like duck to water
She showed so well just like I taught her

Best Bitch at Crufts was her greatest win
Alan Brown was the judge – many thanks to him
Off the lead she never left my side
She always panicked if I ever tried to hide

Emma took everything in her stride
It was only cats she could not abide
A great lover of Chicken and Rice
Everything about Emma was simply just nice

She loved a tickle on the top of her head
She loved to sleep at the bottom of my bed
Emma just loved anything just born
She would watch young chicks from dusk till dawn

When my darling Priscilla died giving birth
Emma was just like mother earth
At the time she had her own babies
She accepted Prizzy's pups –there was no maybes!

Those crested pups grew strong and fit
Thanks to Emma who did her bit
So touching it was to see how she cared
Let anyone take them away – they never dared

On a chair in the garden was her favourite spot
Sometimes she moved if it got too hot
Once little Ruby sat on her back
I am sure she thought she was out for a hack
Emma took it all in her stride
Ruby just loved to have the ride

It just wont be the same now she has passed
Owning a Shar Pei, Emma will be my last
No one could replace such a great soul mate
Having to say goodbye – I simply just hate

Emma and Priscilla up high in the sky
Will be watching the earth as time flies by
Waiting in hope that we will meet again
I know one thing, her life was not in vain!
